Chapter 1 by Lilly Hope

I am sorry to inform you that this story doesn't end in happiness. This story is quite unlike any story you have ever read. You'd be wrong if you thought this story was just about a boy and a girl, this story is so much more than just two people. It's about trust and betrayal and I---Oh whoops, I almost gave it away, well why don't I just tell you what happened.

Chapter 1: The beginning.

Clara knew her parents were lying to her when they said everything was fine, at five years old Clara was top of her class and knew that yelling was only for games, not for home. All of her life her parents argued, They argued about everything, about prices, shopping, money, and Clara herself. Only a few times did they have really big fights, but this time Clara knew that there was something really wrong.
